

VANESSA SARONI

FALL WINTER 21 / 22

We bring as inspiration our dream state
daydreaming,

that feeling of infinite possibilities, a desire for “normality”, as if we were awakening.

In this awakening a mixture (melange) of sensations,
the calmness represented by our most palette beige, brown, gray, salmon and green colors that are pleasant to the eye, simplistic yet

THE INTERLACING THREADS TELL A STORY.

THE HANDMADE WEAVING PROCESS IS POETIC.

It's incredible how single threads can be turned into beautiful fabrics - real peace of art - due to talented hands and minds of Brazilian weavers.
